French · Grade 1

Capitals and periods in French

Read or look closely

“le chat dort” becomes “Le chat dort.” The capital starts the sentence.

Answers

1. Copy the French words that follow. Put a capital at the start and a period at the end: le chien jappe

Le chien jappe.

2. Copy the French words that follow. Put a capital at the start and a period at the end: la neige tombe

La neige tombe.

3. Copy the French words that follow. Put a capital at the start and a period at the end: un lièvre saute

Un lièvre saute.

4. Copy the French words that follow. Put a capital at the start and a period at the end: mon vélo roule

Mon vélo roule.

5. Read “Le chat court. Le chien dort.” How many sentences do you count?

2

6. Write a short French sentence about an animal.

Example: La poule picore.