French · Grade 4

Past, present and future in French

Use the verb and time clues to tell when an action happens.

Name _____ Date _____

Read or look closely

In “Hier, Léa a patiné,” the action is already over, so it is in the past.

Your turn

1. Read the French sentence. Write whether the action happens in the past, present or future: Demain, je jouerai dehors.

2. Read the French sentence. Write whether the action happens in the past, present or future: En ce moment, tu lis.

3. Read the French sentence. Write whether the action happens in the past, present or future: Hier, vous avez marché.

4. Read the French sentence. Write whether the action happens in the past, present or future: Samedi prochain, il visitera sa grand-mère.

5. In “La semaine dernière, il a neigé,” circle the words that tell when.

6. Write a short French sentence in the future with “demain.”