Getting around at two times

Read or look closely

In a village, an old drawing shows a family riding in a horse-drawn carriage. A recent photo shows a family taking the same trip by bus. Two children in the village walk to school.

Answers

1. Reread the sentence that describes the old drawing. Which animal pulls the carriage?

A horse.

2. According to the text, which vehicle is in the recent photo?

A bus.

3. Compare the family's two trips. The vehicle changes. What stays the same?

The route.

4. Draw the two children on their way to school. Write how they get there.

They walk.
