Social studies · Grade 4

Three settlements in New France

Read or look closely

In New France, the French establish Québec in 1608, Trois-Rivières in 1634 and Ville-Marie (Montréal) in 1642. These settlements are along the St. Lawrence River.

Answers

1. Which settlement dates from 1608?

Québec.

2. What other name does the text give for Ville-Marie?

Montréal.

3. Which river connects the three settlements?

The St. Lawrence River.

4. Draw a timeline. Add the three names and their dates.

1608: Québec. 1634: Trois-Rivières. 1642: Ville-Marie.