Social studies · Grade 6

Voting rights in Québec

Read or look closely

In 1918, most Canadian women gain the right to vote in federal elections. In 1940, Québec grants women the right to vote in provincial elections. Some people, including First Nations women, still face exclusions at those times.

Answers

1. Reread the sentence about 1918. Does it describe federal or provincial elections?

Federal elections.

2. What changes in Québec in 1940?

Québec grants women the right to vote in provincial elections.

3. How many years separate the two dates?

22 years.

4. Why is the word “most” important in the text?

Because some people are still excluded.